While the idea of becoming a mystery shopper may sound exciting with lots of potential freebies, the fact is that it is a real job that requires dedication and strong attention to detail.

I m going to amend that original endorsement because of some changes that have occurred over the past couple of years.

I ve gotten to the point where I rarely accept jobs for less than $15 apiece, and I typically try to push that amount into the $20-25 range or more through negotiation.

The Bottom Line Stericycle provides an opportunity for any shopper to quickly get their feet wet and learn the ropes of secret shopping.

So it s long past time to get back to assisting you in beginning and

It depends upon your negotiation skills.

They have steadily increased their client base in recent years and as a result, have quickly become my primary source of mystery shopping income.

I make most of my money through negotiation.

I Want to Hear From You! Posted on February 6, 2014 by Chris Peek Today s post is going to be a little bit different than usual.
