They have steadily increased their client base in recent years and as a result, have quickly become my primary source of mystery shopping income.

I ve gotten to the point where I rarely accept jobs for less than $15 apiece, and I typically try to push that amount into the $20-25 range or more through negotiation.

I Want to Hear From You! Posted on February 6, 2014 by Chris Peek Today s post is going to be a little bit different than usual.

I m going to amend that original endorsement because of some changes that have occurred over the past couple of years.

This company offers a number of jobs in most regions of the country, and most of the work is pretty straightforward.

While the idea of becoming a mystery shopper may sound exciting with lots of potential freebies, the fact is that it is a real job that requires dedication and strong attention to detail.

If you are seeking secondary income, mystery shopping provides an excellent alternative to being stuck in a part-time job.

Today, I want to discuss what mystery shopping is not.

The Bottom Line Stericycle provides an opportunity for any shopper to quickly get their feet wet and learn the ropes of secret shopping.
