I Want to Hear From You! Posted on February 6, 2014 by Chris Peek Today s post is going to be a little bit different than usual.

This company offers a number of jobs in most regions of the country, and most of the work is pretty straightforward.

They have steadily increased their client base in recent years and as a result, have quickly become my primary source of mystery shopping income.

So it s long past time to get back to assisting you in beginning and

I ve gotten to the point where I rarely accept jobs for less than $15 apiece, and I typically try to push that amount into the $20-25 range or more through negotiation.

If you are seeking secondary income, mystery shopping provides an excellent alternative to being stuck in a part-time job.

Today, I want to discuss what mystery shopping is not.

In recent months, Maritz has begun sending out automated emails more often, which offer automated incentives on some shops.

I m going to amend that original endorsement because of some changes that have occurred over the past couple of years.

While the idea of becoming a mystery shopper may sound exciting with lots of potential freebies, the fact is that it is a real job that requires dedication and strong attention to detail.
